TO ALL TEACHERS.

VALUABLE SCHOOL BOOKS,

PUBLISHED by GRIGG & ELLIOT,

PHILADELPHIA.

GRIGG & ELLIOT'S new series of common

School Readers, Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4.

They are among the best series of Reading Books for Common Schools ever published in this country. Upwards of 80,000 copies have been sold in 18 months. Among many other letters of Recommendation the following has just been received from one of the best teachers in Pennsylvania.

LEX. POET, Berks Co., Aug. 25, 1815.

MESSRS. GRIGG & ELLIOT—Gentlemen—Accept

my thanks for the series of Readers you were so kind as to send me by my friend Dr. Darrah, when he was lost in the city. I consider them decided ly the best School Readers I have met with, I have introduced them to the school at this place, and that we found out recently, at the St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans.

We called in to see old friends,

the Irish lady, the Italian Bath,

the fat mistress of the mysteries

she is, in particular—except it is Falstaff,

disguised as the 'Merry Wives.'

We were shown into a bathing room, and there we discovered that an entire new plan of 'lett

on' and 'lett off' the water had been introduced.

We saw a shining brass plate,

with three polished handles, having a 'crank'

and elegantly lettered beneath; 'Hot,'

'Cold,' 'Waste.'

'If ye understand the cocks?' said Mrs.

McTow, Berks Co., Aug. 25, 1815.
